GUIDELINES

Under this scheme, college teachers in economics from any of the universities in Kerala may spend up to a period of one month at the Centre.

The fellowship will consists of travel grant from the place of residence to CDS, Trivandrum and return, rent-free accommodation and boarding at CDS guest house/hostel for a period of thirty days and a grant of up to Rs. 5000 for purchasing text books and other teaching resources.

At the end of the award period, the awardee is expected to produce teaching resources such as lecture notes.

Although all branches of economics are welcome, preference will be given to those wanting to prepare teaching resources in the areas of Economic Theory (Micro and Macroeconomics), Econometrics, the Indian Economy and International Economics. During the term of the fellowship the awardee will have access to both library and computing resources at the Centre and, if she or he so chooses may be mentored by one of the CDS faculty.

Number of fellowships available per year: Five

Application procedure: Twice a year (in April and October) on the basis of an online application. The selected persons may consider availing the fellowship any time within a block of 6 months from the date of award. For instance, if the date of award is November 1 2011, she or he may choose to use the fellowship for any one month before April 30, 2012.
